ORDINANCE NO.11

INSTITUTION OF EMERITUS PROFESSORSHIP, HONORARY PROFESSORSHIP AND ADJUNCT HONORARY PROFESSORSHIP

(Refer Section 7(x) of the Act.)

(For the purpose of this Ordinance, the Act means Maharshi Panini Sanskrit Evam Vedic Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam 2006 (15 of 2008))

Professor Emeritus

1. (a) The Executive Council may, after the retirement confer the title of 'Professor Emeritus' on a Professor of the University who has retired from this University after a total service of at least fifteen years, including at least seven years service as Professor in the University.

(b) The Kulpati may recommend to the Academic Council the conferment of the title of Professor Emeritus and on the recommendation of the Academic Council, the Executive Council may confer the title.
2. The title of Professor Emeritus will be conferred only on scholars who have made outstanding contribution to their subject by their teaching and published research work.
3. A Professor Emeritus may pursue academic work within the frame work of the University Teaching Department to which he is attached. He will not be provided with any special facilities like a personal office or an independent laboratory, nor will he be a member of any committee of the University Teaching Department.
4. Emeritus Professorship will carry with it no financial commitment for the University or responsibility for providing residential accommodation.
5. The conferment of the title of Professor Emeritus will be for life or for such period as the Executive Council may determine in a particular case.

Honorary Professors

1. The Executive Council may appoint any outstanding scholar or eminent person residing in M.P., whose association with the University would help furtherance of the academic activities of the University as an 'Honorary Professor' for a period of two years. The period may, however, be extended for a period of one year only once.
2. The Head of the University Teaching Department concerned, in consultation with his colleagues in the department may propose to the Kulpati the appointment as Honorary Professor of a person and the Kulpati may, after satisfying himself, recommend the appointment to the Academic Council and the appointment will be made by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Academic Council.
3. No person shall be appointed or continued as Honorary Professor on his attaining the age of 65 years.

4. An Honorary Professor shall be expected to be associated with the normal academic activities of the department to which he is attached.

He shall, however, not be a member of any committee of the department or University.

An Honorary Professorship will carry with it no financial commitment for the University or responsibility for providing residential accommodation.

Adjunct Honorary Professors

1. A distinguished academician who is currently on the faculty of another University or academic institution in India or abroad and whose association with the University would enhance the quality of the academic life of the University, may be appointed as an 'Adjunct Honorary Professor' of the University.
2. Such Adjunct Honorary Professors may be affiliated to one or more University Teaching Departments of the University and associated with the teaching and research in these departments particularly when they are in Ujjain. However, they shall not be members of any committee of the department or University.
3. An Adjunct Honorary Professorship will not carry with it any financial commitment for the University or the responsibility for providing residential accommodation. However, the departments(s) to which they are affiliated must make every effort to facilitate their participation in the academic life of the University, whenever they are in Ujjain. They may be provided office space, if available and be given an honorarium to meet their local travel expenses.
